

I beleive that in the best interests of Amature Radio, and to maintain growth and interest that the rules for Morse Code Requirement be dropped in testing for all license classes, and open up the Technician, General, Advanced and Amature Extra to non-code Amature Operators.